

who might otherwise be unable to afford it. Countless future national leaders will benefit from the intellectual stimulation he has made possible through his work at the Library of Congress.

Mr. Kluge is the founding chairman of the James Madison Council, the Library of Congress's private sector philanthropic organization, where he has inspired many others to join in support of the library and its programs.

Through his generosity, John Kluge helped the Library of Congress bridge the gap into the digital world by enabling it to invest heavily in technologies that bring the vast collections of the Library of Congress to people all over the world.

As chairman of the Joint Committee on the Library, I was pleased to announce at a ceremony in the Capitol in 2000 with the Librarian of Congress, Jim Billington, Mr. Kluge's generous gift of $60 million to establish the John W. Kluge center in the Library of Congress. Thanks to this endowment, the Kluge Center brings some of the world's best minds—the Kluge Scholars—into residence to use the rich resources of the library and interact with national policy makers.

John Kluge has also generously supported the creation of advanced training for a new generation of library leaders through the leadership development program at the Library of Congress.

John Kluge is a man who has made a difference. He has touched countless lives and truly deserves the recognition of this body.

I ask unanimous consent to submit this resolution and ask that it be held at the desk so others might join in cosponsoring this resolution. It is my intention to ask the leadership to try to clear it for adoption this afternoon.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to the measure being submitted and held at the desk? Without objection, it is so ordered.
