PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 108th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 150

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2004

No. 115

Senate

The Senate met at 9:30 a.m. and was called to order by the Honorable JOHN ENSIGN, a Senator from the State of Nevada.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Eternal Spirit, giver of every good and perfect gift, great are Your works. We sing of Your strength, for You are the ruler of the universe. Your righteousness endures forever. Give us the wisdom to ask You for Your guidance and to follow Your counsel. Subdue freedom's enemies and provide a shield for liberty.

Lord, thank You for America, with all of its freedoms and opportunities. May we always feel gratitude for this land.

Bless our Senators. Give them insights that will make justice roll down like waters. Help them to make laws that will maintain the rights of the afflicted and the destitute. Empower them to rescue the perishing and to care for the dying. Incline their hearts to so labor that Your will may be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

We pray in Your powerful Name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable JOHN ENSIGN, a Senator from the State of Nevada, led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

APPOINTMENT OF ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will please read a communication to the Senate from the President pro tempore (Mr. STEVENS).

The legislative clerk read the following letter:

U.S. SENATE,
PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE,
Washington, DC, September 22, 2004.

To the Senate:

Under the provisions of rule I, paragraph 3, of the Standing Rules of the Senate, I hereby appoint the Honorable JOHN ENSIGN, a Senator from the State of Nevada, to perform the duties of the Chair.

TED STEVENS,
President pro tempore.

Mr. ENSIGN thereupon assumed the Chair as Acting President pro tempore.

RECOGNITION OF THE MAJORITY LEADER

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The majority leader is recognized.

SCHEDULE

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, following my remarks and the remarks of the Democratic leader, we will proceed to a period for morning business for 90 minutes. The first 45 minutes will be under the control of the majority and the second half under the control of the minority. Following that time, the Senate will proceed to executive session for the consideration of PORTER GOSS to be Director of Central Intelligence. The agreement we reached last night allows for up to 6 hours equally divided for debate on the Goss nomination. The discussion the leaders were just having was that we want to make as much time available to everyone who would like to speak, but in the event we do not need all of that time, that would be yielded back and we would be able to proceed to a vote on that nomination. Again, we have up to 6 hours, but I expect time will be yielded back.

Today we do have a briefing for Senators regarding Iraq this afternoon from 3 to 4. Before that briefing, we will be able to set the vote. I am sure even later this morning we will be able to announce the time we will be voting later today.

We are also continuing to negotiate agreements on some of the remaining appropriation bills. I hope we can agree to a consent to allow us to consider the spending bills with a reasonable time limitation. If so, we will be able to follow the Goss nomination with that. I suspect that will be tomorrow morning.

We have the expiring family-friendly tax items and we want to consider that legislation as soon as it becomes available. I understand that progress is being made. It will be important for us to vote on that this week. In the event that is Friday morning, that will have to be Friday morning, but I do want to encourage the conferees, who I think are very close to reporting out that legislation, so that the House of Representatives can consider it and we can consider it. We will be voting on that this week, either Friday or, if it is available, Thursday night. Obviously, I encourage the latter.

I remind my colleagues of the joint meeting tomorrow morning at 10 with Prime Minister Allawi of Iraq. He will be addressing both Houses on Thursday. Members should be in the Senate Chamber no later than 9:30 in order to proceed to that joint meeting.

NOMINATION OF PORTER GOSS TO BE CIA DIRECTOR

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I will take a few minutes to comment on Representative PORTER GOSS' nomination to the post of Director of the CIA, as well as to comment on the real progress the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee is making as we address the issues of the 9/11 recommendations.

With regard to the former, I congratulate the Senate Intelligence Committee. One of the reasons I do not think there will be as much debate on the floor today is that they very thoroughly addressed the nomination with
