

Since I introduced it on September 21, the Bonner plan, H.R. 5111, has received interest and support from many of my colleagues, including Senators KYLE, CORNYN and CHAMBLISS. The bill also garnered a unique group and I believe unprecedented group of bipartisan cosponsors, including the gentleman from Texas (Mr. REYES), a past chairman of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus, as well as the gentleman from Colorado (Mr. TANCREDO), the chairman of the Immigration Reform Caucus. We all share the goal of eliminating illegal immigration, and I hope very much that we are able to see full and enthusiastic support for H.R. 10 as we move ahead with it this week.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. PETRI) at 2 p.m.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

As a clear, cool westerly blows across the Nation and the somber tones of autumn settle upon us, the Members of the House may be called to a syncopated discipline of self-surrender. With more determined steps, all walk into the season when seeds of the future fall to the Earth.

With grateful hearts for so many blessings, Lord, allow Your people to use their freedom wisely, and befriend the barren, the voiceless, and the hardened. Cover us with a protective cloak, that the paralysis of fear may be massaged to accept the planting of hope into our tiring body. In these days of diminished light, prepare us for Your hidden promise. For You are the Lord of every season and forever. Amen

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.
