

$11 million to revitalize the park with art shows, music, children's programming and improved grounds maintenance. I am proud to say that with the Association's help, Madison Square Park has truly become an oasis in the heart of Manhattan and a source of pride for those who live nearby.

The 23rd Street Association's president of 10 years, Sharon L. Ullman, has been an instrumental part of the Association's success. Her dedication to public service is truly inspiring: Ms. Ullman served as the Warden of Madison Square Park for four years, has been a longtime board member of the Associated Blind and the Gramercy Park Block Association and has received community service awards from Concerned Citizens Speak and New York Mayor Rudolph Guiliani. Ms. Ullman was also named one of the top 100 New Yorkers by New York Resident magazine.

The Association's 2004 honoree is North Fork Bank, which will be represented by North Fork's Senior Vice President, Carl M. Gambino. The Bank's 15 New York City branches are vital elements of our community, employing more than 250 New Yorkers and managing more than $1.5 billion in assets. Mr. Gambino, who was born and raised in Greenwich Village, has served as the director of the 23rd Street Association, the New York City Council of the Boy Scouts of America and the East Village Business Association. Mr. Gambino is an inspiring humanitarian and business leader whose Christmas Toy Drive and financial counseling initiatives have greatly benefitted New York City children.

Mr. Speaker, I request that my colleagues join me in paying tribute to the 23rd Street Association, its president, Sharon L. Ullman, and its honoree, North Fork Bank.

REMEMBERING ORVILLE G.
BENTLEY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2004

Mr. JOHNSON of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, on October 10, 2004 the University of Illinois College of Agriculture lost one of the most influential leaders in its history. Orville G. Bentley served as Dean of the College from 1965–1982. When Mr. Bentley took the helm, the facilities of the College were below par, making it hard to retain graduate students and faculty. However, he quickly became the College's champion for improving research and teaching facilities and as a result, the College of Agriculture, is today among the best in the country.

Apart from improvements on campus, Orville was most proud of the vital international work the University of Illinois provided during his tenure. Under his stewardship the University of Illinois made substantial contributions to creating new agricultural institutions in Africa and the Asian sub-continent.

Dean Bentley left the University of Illinois in 1982 to join the U.S. Department of Agriculture, but he will be remembered as someone who always made time for his colleagues and thoroughly enjoyed welcoming visitors from different parts of the world. In his 17 years of service to the University of Illinois, Orville G. Bentley was instrumental in improving the College's facilities and in making Illinois a leader in the international agricultural arena. His contributions will be treasured and his character will be missed.

COMMEMORATING THE LIFE OF TERRI ANN SIMMS GRIER

HON. STEPHANIE TUBBS JONES

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2004

Mrs. JONES of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the life of Terri Ann Simms Grier a great citizen and dedicated public servant who recently passed away at the age of 42.

Terri Ann Simms Grier was born July 12, 1962 in Cleveland, Ohio to Emmet and Evelyn Simms. Upon graduation from high school she went on to pursue her education at Smith College and would later graduate from Howard University in Washington, D.C.

Employed for 13 years with the American Transport Association as a legislative analyst, Terri represented ATA at both the federal and state level on legislative matters. Additionally, she served as President of the Employee Association and was well respected in the field of government relations.

Terri was an active member of the Washington Government Relations Group, a non partisan organization of African-American lobbyists and government relations professionals, where she held the office of secretary through two administrations spanning four years (1998–2001).

Terri enjoyed traveling and had visited such countries as France, Spain, Egypt, Amsterdam, Iceland, Brazil, Mexico, Jamaica, Portugal and the Bahamas. She was also fluent in both French and Spanish. A devoted wife and mother to her husband Glen and son Jamir Langston Grier, here greatest joy was her family.

May Terri Ann Simms Grier's legacy of love live on in the hearts, minds and deeds of everyone who knew her.

HONORING LEE ROSENBERG

HON. RAHM EMANUEL

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2004

Mr. EMANUEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to congratulate Lee Rosenberg and Rabbi Kudan for winning the Humanitarian Award of the Holocaust Memorial Foundation of Illinois.

I am proud to call Lee a good friend and to recognize his achievements today on the House floor. Affectionately known by his many friends as "Rosy," Lee Rosenberg has dedicated a lifetime toward advancing the cause of human rights and social equality in Israel and for the Jewish people around the world. I have often discussed foreign policy matters with Lee and benefited from his impressive knowledge, insight, and advocacy for state of Israel and humanitarian affairs.

I was honored to attend the Humanitarian Award Dinner, which recognized Lee's outstanding contributions on November 11th. The ceremony was hosted by the Holocaust Me-memorial Foundation of Illinois—an organization working to preserve the value and dignity of human life through remembrance of the events surrounding the Holocaust.

Since 1986, the Foundation has presented its Humanitarian Award to honor distinguished citizens who have helped embody the ideals of the organization. Lee Rosenberg's contributions over the past twenty years have reflected these ideals and his impeccable reputation as one of Chicago's most active leaders in the Jewish philanthropic community.

In addition, Lee has worked tirelessly to improve his community through active membership in the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago, the Jewish Community Relations Council, AIPAC, and as a board member for several private sector and not-for-profit corporations.

Mr. Speaker, I congratulate Lee Rosenberg for receiving the Humanitarian Award bestowed by the Holocaust Memorial Foundation of Illinois. The Fifth Congressional District of Illinois, and indeed the city of Chicago, are proud of Lee's achievements and for winning this prestigious award. On behalf of a grateful Nation, I thank Lee for his contributions to community service and wish him continued success in the future.

TRIBUTE TO SGT CLAY PEACOCK

HON. ROBERT E. (BUD) CRAMER, JR.

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2004

Mr. CRAMER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize SGT Jay C. Peacock who was awarded the Bronze Star with Valor for his actions of heroism during the Vietnam War. SGT Peacock, known as Clay, received the Bronze Star during a special ceremony on Veterans Day, November 11, 2004.

During the Vietnam War, SGT Peacock was a Ground Radio Operator for the 21st Tactical Air Support Squadron. On October 26, 1969, during an attack by the North Vietnamese Army, SGT Peacock was deployed by helicopter into the Special Forces Camp at Bu Prang. Heavy fighting with constant artillery, mortar, and small arms fire continued through October 28th.

Mr. Speaker, SGT Peacock distinguished himself during the attack by dividing his time between his radio operator duties and taking care of the Officer in Charge who was wounded on the second day of the North Vietnamese siege.

At dusk on the second night, supporting aircraft were called to help prevent the North Vietnamese from overrunning the camp. Knowing that their friendly position had to be marked for supporting aircraft, SGT Peacock put himself in the line of fire to successfully mark their position with strobe lights from his survival vest. Because of his unselfish actions, the aircraft were able to force the North Vietnamese army to retreat.

Mr. Speaker, although his heroic actions took place over 30 years ago, SGT Peacock received his long overdue and much deserved medal surrounded by family and friends on Veterans Day. With great pleasure, I rise today to congratulate this wonderful achievement.
