

one of these trips, Kay met her husband Hank whom she married in 1941. As a wedding gift, Hank purchased a ranch in Canyon Creek, Colorado where they settled and operated a dairy cattle operation dubbed the H-Lazy-K. What initially started as a cattle ranch expanded into other areas including a successful guest ranch. Kay operated her Rock-n-Pines Guest Ranch until her death.

Kay was a sports enthusiast who took pleasure in golfing, fishing, and bowling, and was a devoted Denver Broncos and Colorado Rockies fan. In her spare time, she also enjoyed traveling, reading, knitting, and arranging flowers. Kay had a generous heart and told endearing stories to everyone she knew. She bettered the lives of those around her, and played host to many patrons of the guest ranch over the years.

Mr. Speaker, we are all terribly saddened by the loss of Kay Williams, though take comfort in the knowledge that our grief is overshadowed only by the legacy of kindness and generosity that Kay has left with us. I know that many throughout our state who had the chance to benefit from the opportunity of meeting Kay will miss her kind heart and generous spirit. My thoughts and prayers go out to her friends and family during this difficult time of bereavement.

TRIBUTE TO LTC WILLIAM H. JEFFERSON

HON. JIM SAXTON

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 19, 2004

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Lieutenant Colonel William H. Jefferson on his retirement from the United States Army National Guard Office of the Chief of Legislative Liaison, United States

Army, the Pentagon, Washington, DC effective December 2, 2004.

Lieutenant Colonel William H. Jefferson has distinguished himself by twenty two years of exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding service to the Army in a series of key positions as an Army Air Defense and Military Intelligence Officer, culminating in service with the Office of the Chief of Legislative Liaison responsible for liaison between the Army, Members of Congress, their personal staffs, and the professional staffs of the Senate Armed Services Committee and the House Armed Services Committee.

Lieutenant Colonel William H. Jefferson commissioned as a Second Lieutenant, Air Defense Artillery, after graduating from the United States Military Academy at West Point and assigned as an Improved Hawk Missile Defense Battalion, Platoon Leader in 3d Bn, 30th Air Defense Artillery in Germany and transferred to the Military Intelligence Corps where he served as an Intelligence Officer, Operations Officer and Company Commander for the 201st Military Intelligence Brigade and later served with the National Security Agency and then to the Northeastern Reserve Intelligence Support Center from 1996 to 1998.

Lieutenant Colonel Jefferson was selected and served as an Army Congressional Fellow for Congressman Jim Saxton of New Jersey's 3d District in 1999 and applied his legislative experience and missile defense and strategic intelligence expertise as a Hardware Congressional Liaison Officer in the Office of the Secretary of the Army, Legislative Liaison Programs Division from February 2000 through December 2004 maintaining a constant liaison with Professional Staff Members of the Senate and House Armed Services Committees on issues relating to Army Procurement programs focusing on Army Space and Missile Defense.

Lieutenant Colonel Jefferson has provided outstanding leadership, advice, and sound professional judgment on numerous critical issues of enduring importance to both the Army and Congress. His actions and counsel were invaluable to Army leaders and Members of Congress as they considered the impact of important issues. Lieutenant Colonel Jefferson's dedication to accomplishing the Army's legislative liaison mission has been extraordinary. He is truly an outstanding officer who displays superb professional leadership skills and is totally dedicated to mission accomplishment in the highest traditions of military service.

LLOYD WILLIAMS: A HARLEM VISIONARY

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 19, 2004

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize and congratulate Mr. Lloyd A. Williams, an influential business and community leader who, for the past 30 years, has worked tenaciously toward the overall improvement and economic revitalization of Harlem. His contributions to the cultural life of our community have played a fundamental role in the renewal of Northern Manhattan.

For over 25 years, Mr. Williams has served as President of The Greater Harlem Chamber of Commerce, which is celebrating its 105th year of positive and productive influence in the community. With over 1,700 members, including several Fortune 500 companies, the Chamber's activism far exceeds the borders of New York City. The Chamber's primary focus is the improvement of the economic climate of Upper Manhattan while emphasizing the needs of the business, educational and cultural sectors.

The Chairman of Harlem Week, Inc. and the Harlem Jazz & Music Festival, Mr. Williams was a co-founder of the event dating back to its inception in 1974. Now the largest festival of its kind in the Northeast, the event, which began as a one-day festival, now spans an entire month and attracts over 3 million visitors. Harlem Week draws thousands of vendors from across the country, generating millions of dollars for the economies of Harlem and New York City.

Mr. Williams is a co-founder of the National Black Sports & Entertainment Hall of Fame. Since its creation, the group has inducted 25 extraordinary African-American sports and entertainment figures each year, while recognizing outstanding contributions by performers of all races. Former inductees include Quincy Jones, Harry Belafonte, Dionne Warwick, Joe Cuba, Julius "Dr. J" Irving and many others.

Mr. Williams is also the acting President of the Greater Harlem Housing Development Corporation, a group dedicated to attracting businesses and professional persons to relocate to the upper Manhattan area. The Development Corporation recently completed construction of "Strivers Garden", a residential and business complex that is expected to encourage further growth in Harlem.

Recently, Mr. Williams was honored for his tireless philanthropic efforts at the Museum of the City of New York's annual exhibition titled: "Harlem is . . . Activism". Joining Mr. Williams as awardees were Basil A. Paterson, Dr. Muriel Petioni and Percy E. Sutton.

It is the ever-growing list of accomplishments and works of excellence that defines Lloyd Williams as a leader in his community. Truly a pioneer in both the fields of culture and commerce, he has managed to harmoniously unite the two, providing opportunities for Harlem residents to thrive. There is no question that the long-term impact of Mr. Williams's successes will reach far into the future. The Harlem community, indeed all of New York City, owes a debt of gratitude to Lloyd Williams.

IN HONOR OF A1C JESSE SAMEK

HON. JOHN BOOZMAN

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 19, 2004

Mr. BOOZMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor one of America's bravest, Airman 1st Class Jesse Samek. Jesse, a 2001 Rogers High School graduate recently died in Afghanistan while honorably serving his country.

A flight engineer assigned out of Nellis Air Force Base, Jesse was killed on October 21 st, when his helicopter crashed during a rescue mission. The mission that day was to carry a wounded Afghan election worker to a medical facility. Jesse was a true hero who was literally protecting democracy.
