

Senate budget resolution; provided further that the Senate then resume debate on the Smith amendment under the previous order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. GREGG. Mr. President, tomorrow it is my expectation that the Senate will complete action on the budget resolution. We will continue the amendment process tomorrow morning. Under the previous order, we will conclude debate on all remaining amendments during tomorrow morning's session. All time has been allocated for tomorrow. It is anticipated that we will begin voting on the remaining amendments around 1:20 or 1:30 tomorrow afternoon, and we will keep Senators posted as to the timing of this vote-arama. We are working through the list of filed and offered amendments so we can minimize the number of votes we will need to have during tomorrow's session. But Senators should be expected to stay on the floor throughout the afternoon and into the evening. These will be 10-minute votes, and Senators should plan their schedules around being on the floor in order not to miss any of these crucial votes.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. GREGG. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 9:48 p.m., adjourned until Thursday, March 17, 2005, at 9 a.m.
