TRIBUTE TO REVEREND T. F. TENNEY

● Mr. VITTER. Mr. President, today I recognize Reverend T. F. Tenney, United Pentecostal Church District Superintendent for the State of Louisiana. Reverend Tenney retired on March 31, 2005, after 26 years of service in central Louisiana and throughout the State. More than 4,000 people attended a celebration of his service to offer heartfelt appreciation and best wishes at his retirement ceremony, and I join in their sentiments today.

Through his role as district superintendent he was responsible for overseeing all of Louisiana's United Pentecostal Churches. Reverend Tenney created a level of stability in the church and brought the United Pentecostal Church to a new level during his 26 years of service. His professionalism and guidance in handling Louisiana's churches and their congregations will be missed, as will his great wisdom and leadership.

I personally commend, honor and thank Reverend Tenney on the occasion of his retirement from service to the people of Louisiana after 26 years as United Pentecostal Church District Superintendent for the State of Louisiana.●

IN MEMORY OF CLARENCE EDWARD "BIG HOUSE" GAINES

● Mr. BURR. Mr. President, today I mourn the passing of a great North Carolinian. Clarence "Big House" Gaines of Winston-Salem, NC passed away yesterday at the age of 81. He is survived by his lovely wife, Clara, and by his two children, Lisa and Clarence, Jr. All of North Carolina mourns his passing and our thoughts, prayers, and blessings are with his family.

Clarence "Big House" Gaines was an institution in Winston-Salem, where he coached at Winston-Salem State University for 47 years. Coach Gaines won 828 basketball games during his 47 years, fifth best of all time. To understand just how successful a coach he was, Gaines won more games than legends John Wooden and Phog Allen, and finished not too far behind Dean Smith. Perhaps Gaines' most successful season came in 1967 when he coached the Rams to a 31-1 record and an NCAA Division II National Championship.

His was the first predominantly black college team to win an NCAA title and he became the first black coach to be named NCAA Coach of the Year. He went on to win eight Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association titles and was named the CIAA's Coach of the Year five times. Coach Gaines was named to the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame in 1982. Winston-Salem State University honored Clarence Gaines by naming the Athletic Department facility and the school's Hall of Fame for him.

It would be a mistake, however, to merely list his coaching accomplishments. Clarence "Big House" Gaines was more than a coach. He was a community leader, an educator, a mentor and a father figure. His most important achievement was the near 80 percent graduation rate of his student athletes, a legacy that all college coaches should look to emulate.

Coach Gaines taught school up to his retirement from coaching in 1993 and continued to involve himself in the lives of the young people at Winston-Salem State. His marriage and family served as an example to the young people he coached. In his memoirs, published last year, Clarence Gaines wrote that "When these boys, most growing into old men themselves, continue to call their old coach and thank him for helping them get a college degree, it makes me proud to answer to the nickname of Big House." He will not be forgotten in North Carolina or in the hearts and memories of the many young lives he touched.●

LEXINGTON CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM

● Mr. BUNNING. Mr. President, I pay tribute in the Senate to the Lexington Catholic Girls' Basketball Team. The team won the Kentucky State Girls Basketball State Championship.

Lexington Catholic's Lady Knights finished the most successful season in school history by capturing the program's third State championship in seven seasons with a 59-54 victory over Clinton County. The team finished the season with a 36-1 record and ranked No. 6 nationally.

The Commonwealth of Kentucky should be very proud of this team. Their example of hard work and determination should be followed by all in the Commonwealth.

Congratulation to the members of the team for their success. But also, I want to congratulate their coach, Greg Todd, along with their peers, faculty, administrators, and parents for their support and sacrifices they have made to help the Lady Knights meet their achievements and dreams. Keep up the good work.●
