REPUBLICANS DEFEAT DEMOCRATS IN ANNUAL CONGRESSIONAL BASEBALL GAME

Mr. OXLEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend my remarks.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I so want to object to what happened last night and he is going to talk about it, but I know that comity demands that I do not object. I yield to my friend from Ohio.

Mr. OXLEY. I thank the gentleman for yielding. What gave it away?

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. OXLEY) is recognized for 1 minute.

There was no objection.

Mr. OXLEY. Mr. Speaker, this is, of course, what they call the bragging rights, the day after the annual congressional baseball game.

Mr. Speaker, last evening at historic Robert F. Kennedy Stadium, the Republican baseball team defeated the Democrats by a score of 19-10. We most appreciate everybody's participation. Mr. Speaker, this was the largest crowd in the history of this vaunted contest that goes back, in the modern era, some 45 years. We had almost 6,000 spectators. The winners in this contest were not the Republicans, really, but the charities that were involved that will benefit greatly. We raised about $125,000 for the Boys and Girls Club of Washington and the Adult Literacy Council.

I want to thank all of the players who participated, particularly Kevin Brady, the second baseman for the Republican squad, who was voted our MVP. Kevin has had a checkered career recently. The last two seasons before this, he did not last through the first inning because of injuries. This year he played the entire game and had a couple of hits and played well in the field and was voted our MVP.

Our congratulations also go to Jay Inslee from the Evergreen State who played magnificently at third base for the Democrats and was awarded the MVP award by the manager of the Democratic team, my good friend, Martin Sabo, a great sportsman and a real leader.

We enjoyed the game immensely. I want to publicly thank the gentleman from Maryland for hosting us for so many years up in Bowie; but we had an opportunity, as he knows, to move to the major league ballpark, and to play in a major league ballpark, I think I speak for all of our players, was like getting our youth back, at least for 2 or 3 hours out there in that contest.

I want to thank all of the sponsors and all of the people who purchased tickets for this event. It was truly a great historic event on the Hill and one that we look forward to participating in next year.

I will be glad to yield to my friend from Maryland.

Mr. HOYER. I thank my friend for yielding.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mrs. WILSON of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, because I attended a BRAC Commission hearing in New Mexico, I missed the vote on final passage of the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2006, H.R. 3010 (rollcall vote No. 321). If I had been there, I would have voted no on final passage.

Additionally, if I had been in attendance, I would have voted in favor of the Obey Amend-
