I offer to you, our ally, our partner, our friend, as long as you in England and we in the United States continue to show strength and resolve against enemies of our peace and prosperity and our freedom, both on our soil, and in foggy London Town, and lands of all people, the sun is shining and will be shining everywhere.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer: Often when we are called to prayer, Lord, we bow our heads and close our eyes. We do this out of reverence and close the windows of this world to focus our attention on the spiritual, which cannot be seen.

But when Your spirit quickens our spirit within, Your holiness penetrates our being and illumines everything around us. For this reason, prayer is truly an awakening. Our minds and hearts are lifted and we become more aware of sin and grace within us and around us.

Prayer itself helps us face the tasks of the day and the problems to be solved with new determination and the gift of creation of new possibilities. Therefore, send Your spirit of prayer upon the House of Representatives today, this week, and forever. Amen.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OFFICER ANDREW PHILLIPS

(Mr. PRICE of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Marietta police officer Andrew Phillips. On July 13 he received the National Public Safety Medal of Valor from President Bush at a White House ceremony. Officer Phillips is the first officer from Georgia to receive the award, the Nation's highest accolade for bravery.

The award was created by the U.S. Justice Department, and it honors public safety workers who show exceptional courage in the line of duty.

Officer Phillips was recognized for saving the lives of two fellow officers last year after they were shot upon entering a house with a search warrant. Instead of retreating, Phillips returned gunfire until the man threw down his weapon and surrendered.

As an officer on the Narcotics Task Force, Officer Phillips is the epitome of the kind of courageous and valiant men and women we want on our police forces. I thank him for going to work every day and putting his life on the line for all of us. It is because of his type of heroic actions that we all feel protected in our communities.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to say Officer Phillips is from Georgia's Sixth District. He is a leader in our community, and I am thrilled to honor his service and his accomplishments. Congratulations, Officer Phillips.

THE PEOPLE OF ALEXANDER COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA HAVE PLENTY TO CELEBRATE

(Ms. FOXX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. FOXX. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Paragon Films, Incorporated, which is scheduled to open a new 40,000-square foot manufacturing facility in Alexander County, North Carolina, in October.

The company, which is the sixth largest manufacturer of stretch film products in America, will create 25 new jobs during its first 2 years of operation and will invest $10 million into the county. Paragon Films predicts that within 8 to 10 years it will produce $100 million in revenue and employ 150 people.

Madam Speaker, I am confident that Paragon Films is making a wise investment and am pleased they are bringing a high-quality company with great career opportunities to the hard-working people in Alexander County.

I am also impressed by the values of this company. Paragon plans to establish a Paragon for Christ trust fund shortly after opening to help reach those who are in need. The company's president and CEO, Mike Baab, said, "We take care of people. If your focus is on the almighty dollar, then you lose sight of the people."

Madam Speaker, the people of Alexander County have plenty to celebrate.

PASSING CAFTA IS THE RIGHT THING TO DO

(Mr. DREIER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DREIER. Madam Speaker, this morning I heard on National Public Radio a report of a survey, a bipartisan survey, that was conducted in which people were saying that while they feel good about their own economic situation, they are less optimistic about the overall economy.

I think it is very important for us to note that the underlying figures that we have, as well as empirical evidence, show that we have a very strong, bold, and dynamic economy that has been brought about, in large part, due to the tax cuts proposed by President Bush and that we in this Republican Congress have implemented.

We now have an unemployment rate of 5 percent, which is lower than the average for the 1970s, the 1980s, and the 1990s; a 3.8 percent gross domestic product growth, and 146,000 jobs created in the last month. That is a number that has been continuing to grow, and we need to recognize that it has been our policies that have created that.

We have on the horizon a very important issue in the coming days that we are going to be voting on, and that is a market-opening opportunity for us with passage of the Central American Free Trade Agreement.

The world has access to the U.S. consumer market, Madam Speaker, and unfortunately, because of the tariff structure, and a tariff is a tax, we are unable to sell into other parts of the world. Ninety-four percent of the world's consumers are outside of our border.

We need to do everything we can to pass the CAFTA so that we, immediately upon implementation of it, will see 80 percent of our products get into these Central American countries tariff-free. It is the right thing for the American consumer, and it is the right thing for political stability in this hemisphere.
