

One of our amendments would have allowed a victim of domestic violence to take time off from work, without pay, and without penalty, to make necessary court appearances, seek legal assistance, and get help with safety planning.

Our second amendment would have allowed states to provide unemployment benefits to victims who are fired due to circumstances stemming from domestic violence.

This would help victims who find themselves with the unconscionable choice of returning to an abusive home or becoming homeless.

Finally, victims of domestic violence report rampant insurance discrimination based on their status as a victim of domestic assault.

Insurance providers frequently use information about the abuse history of an applicant—including medical, police, and court records—to deny health coverage.

And our third amendment would prohibit insurance providers from basing coverage decisions on a victim's history of abuse.

Unfortunately, because the Republican leadership has decided on a restrictive approach to reauthorizing VAWA Congressman POE and I have been prevented from presenting these amendments.

For that reason, I oppose the rule, and will work with Congressman POE to include these amendments in the final version of the House bill in order to help victims of domestic abuse successfully and safely escape their abuser.
