

Unfortunately, the increase of violent activities against judges, and we talked about that here during this hour, court officers, witnesses, victims, and law enforcement has made this bill not only necessary but also a top priority in the preservation of our system of law and justice.

Mr. Speaker, I look forward to the discussion of H.R. 1751 and the numerous amendments this rule has made in order. As always, I urge my colleagues to support the rule and the underlying bill.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, I yield back the balance of my time, and I move the previous question on the resolution.

The previous question was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. PETRI). The question is on the resolution.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. GINGREY. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question will be postponed.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, proceedings will resume on questions previously postponed.

Votes will be taken in the following order:

House Resolution 539, by the yeas and nays;

House Resolution 538, by the yeas and nays;

House Resolution 540, by the yeas and nays.

The first electronic vote will be conducted as a 15-minute vote. Remaining electronic votes will be conducted as 5-minute votes.
