

Before I conclude, there are some people I need to thank. First, I again thank Senator FEINSTEIN, my partner in the Senate on this bill. Her work on the Energy and Natural Resources Committee was invaluable, and John Watts of her staff helped greatly. Congressman THOMPSON tirelessly championed this bill in the House, and Jonathan Birdsong, his legislative director, put in countless hours of work to accomplish this.

I also thank Senators BINGAMAN and DOMENICI of the Energy and Natural Resources Committee. They, along with Senators CRAIG and WYDEN, have worked very well with me to protect these special places and helped me move this bill forward. Finally I need to thank David Brooks and Frank Gladics of the Energy Committee staff for working so carefully and conscientiously on this bill.

God has given Americans an exceptionally beautiful treasure in its wild landscape, and my State is blessed with some of its best.

We must be good stewards of that gift and share it with future generations that is what Theodore Roosevelt, John Muir, John Wesley Powell, Ansel Adams, and other great Americans did, and we have places like Yosemite and Yellowstone to cherish because of their actions.

Mr. President, because the Congress passed this bill today, future generations will be thanking us for preserving places like the King Range and other parts of the stunning, wild, and unspoiled northern California coast.
