

protects against undue forfeiture of attorney-client privilege and work product protections when privileged communications are inadvertently produced in discovery—where the party producing the documents took reasonable steps to prevent the disclosure and does not try to use the disclosed information in a misleading way. Second, it permits parties and courts to protect against the consequences of waiver by permitting limited disclosure of privileged information between the parties to litigation. This allows parties and courts to manage the effects of disclosure and provide predictability in current and future litigation.

The proposed rule enjoys wide support from parties on both sides of the “v.” Both plaintiffs and defendants want this rule because it makes the litigation more efficient and less costly; it ensures that the wheels of justice will not become bogged down in the mud of discovery.

The Judicial Conference, which is the body responsible for proposing new procedural rules, has undertaken an extensive process in crafting this rule over the last year and a half. The rule was approved by the Judicial Conference’s Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules, the Standing Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Judicial Conference itself, after a public comment period that included several hearings with supportive comments and testimony from bench and bar. There were more than 70 public comments, and more than 20 witnesses testified.

The time is ripe to move forward and enact this proposed rule into law. Therefore, I have worked with Senator LEAHY to bring this bill to the floor in a timely and bipartisan fashion. This rule is necessary to protect the attorney-client privilege, to bring clarity to the law, and to ensure fairness for all parties. And every day we wait wastes the time and resources of litigants and the courts. I urge my colleagues to join with Senator LEAHY and me in supporting this bill.

S. RES. 400

Whereas Native Americans are the descendants of the aboriginal, indigenous, native people who were the original inhabitants of and who governed the lands that now constitute the United States;

Whereas Native Americans have volunteered to serve in the United States Armed Forces and have served with valor in all of the Nation’s military actions from the Revolutionary War through the present day, and in most of those actions, more Native Americans per capita served in the Armed Forces than any other group of Americans;

Whereas Native American tribal governments developed the fundamental principles of freedom of speech and separation of governmental powers that were a model for those that form the foundation of the United States Constitution;

Whereas the Founding Fathers based the provisions of the Constitution on the unique system of democracy of the Six Nations of the Iroquois Confederacy, which divided powers among the branches of government and provided for a system of checks and balances;

Whereas Native Americans have made distinct and significant contributions to the United States and the rest of the world in many fields, including agriculture, medicine, music, language, and art, and Native Americans have distinguished themselves as inventors, entrepreneurs, spiritual leaders, and scholars;

Whereas Native Americans should be recognized for their contributions to the United States as local and national leaders, athletes, and scholars;

Whereas nationwide recognition of the contributions that Native Americans have made to the fabric of American society will afford an opportunity for all Americans to demonstrate their respect and admiration of Native Americans for their important contributions to the political, cultural, and economic life of the United States;

Whereas nationwide recognition of the contributions that Native Americans have made to the Nation will encourage self-esteem, pride, and self-awareness in Native Americans of all ages;

Whereas designation of the Friday following Thanksgiving as Native American Heritage Day will underscore the government-to-government relationship between the United States and Native American governments; and

Whereas designation of Native American Heritage Day will encourage public elementary and secondary schools in the United States to enhance understanding of Native Americans by providing curricula and classroom instruction focusing on the achievements and contributions of Native Americans to the Nation: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Senate—

(1) designates Friday, November 23, 2007, as “Native American Heritage Day”; and
