

now to prevent aggressive logging, we could lose 50–80 percent of our carbon storage capacity and reduce our ability to mitigate the effects of climate change.

The Act to Save America's Forests will ensure that future generations of Americans will inherit and enjoy our Nation's irreplaceable natural forest treasures.

I'm very proud to introduce this bipartisan bill with 70 cosponsors and I urge my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to join me in supporting this important piece of legislation.

110TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE OLD
PRINT SHOP

HON. RODNEY P. FRELINGHUYSEN

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize the 110th anniversary of the Old Print Shop, an American and New York landmark located at 150 Lexington Avenue in New York City.

The Old Print Shop celebrates 110 years under four generations of Newman family.

Its headquarters for almost 75 of those years has been on Lexington Avenue in an unpretentious brownstone with old wooden floors and antique display cases. The shop has been described as having Old World charm. At the helm are second and third generation Newman's who enjoy what has been the hallmark of the shop, buying and selling fine prints, maps, and books.

The Old Print Shop has supplied prints and paintings to many public and private art collections including the Library of Congress, the State Department, and the National Portrait Gallery. It strives to present a friendly and helpful atmosphere to both experts and beginning collectors. The comfortable interior encourages browsing through the thousands of prints, which are organized by subject, artist, and size. The shop has grown considerably since its humble beginnings as a portrait gallery and now carries a broad selection of American graphic arts from the 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries and a wide selection of antique maps. The Old Print Shop has also expanded by taking over the ground floor of the adjoining building at 152 Lexington Avenue, where the focus is on art reference, illustrated, fine art, and color plate books.

Following in the footsteps of his father, the late Harry Shaw Newman, his son, Kenneth M. Newman, helped to build many collections of American primitive art and to concentrate the attention of the public on American printmakers, especially Currier & Ives and other publishers from the 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries.

Robert K. Newman, Kenneth's elder son, and his younger son, Harry Shaw Newman, share in their father's knowledge and love of prints, paintings, and art history. In recent years, Robert K. Newman's son, Brian has joined the shop as fourth generation in the business.

Madam Speaker, I ask that the House recognize this remarkable family who have contributed so much toward the preservation and appreciation of American history through their business acumen at the Old Print Shop in

New York City and their associated gallery, the Old Print Gallery in Washington, DC.

TRIBUTE TO DAVE GUTZ

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. LATHAM. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Dave Gutz, of Jefferson, Iowa who competed in the 100 yard dash and in golf at the 2008 U.S. Transplant Games in Pittsburgh, PA.

Four years ago, Dave Gutz found out that his only kidney, the other one was damaged at birth and was later removed, was failing and he was immediately put on dialysis for twenty-five months. A year later, Dave was placed on the transplant list and it took at least another eighteen months before a kidney was available. Last September he received the gift of life—the kidney he needed to survive.

Hosted by the National Kidney Foundation, the Transplant Games are an Olympic-style event for athletes who have received life-saving organ transplants. It provides the athletes an opportunity to celebrate that they survived and flourished. The Games have twelve different events and the athletes have the opportunity to win either a gold, silver, and bronze medal.

Dave Gutz's courage and perseverance is an inspiration to all of us. I am honored to represent Dave Gutz in the United States Congress and I know that my colleagues join me in congratulating him and wish him success in the future.

CONGRESSIONAL TRIBUTE
HONORING RAYMOND RIVERA, JR.

HON. CHARLES A. GONZALEZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. GONZALEZ. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor a constituent of mine, Mr. Raymond Rivera, Jr., who was recently awarded the "Regional Hero" award by the National Association of Letter Carriers.

Mr. Rivera, a member of the NALC's San Antonio Branch 421, was honored this past week by the NALC for rescuing two little girls who were being attacked by a pair of pit bulls in San Antonio. Heroically, he grabbed one of the pit bulls by the face as it was biting a child. With the help of another Good Samaritan, the two saved the children and restrained the animals for 45 minutes until authorities arrived. One child received more than 100 stitches after the accident, but without Mr. Rivera, the incident could have very well been catastrophic.

San Antonio is grateful for everyday heroes such as Mr. Rivera who are setting great examples for the rest of our community. I'm pleased to recognize his actions and bravery of that day, and I'm honored to call him a constituent.

RECOGNIZING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF GLOBAL STAFFING, INC., AND WESTMORELAND, INC.

HON. MARK UDALL

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. UDALL of Colorado. Madam Speaker, I rise to congratulate Westmoreland/GTG JV, a venture of Global Staffing, Inc., and Westmoreland, Inc., on its recognition as a "Top 100 Veteran Owned Business in America" and a "Top 100 Disabled Owned Business in America" by Diversity Business Magazine. From what I have heard of Westmoreland/GTGS JV, a service-disabled, veteran-owned small business, this recognition is well deserved.

I'm told that for the 17 years that Global Staffing has operated in my district, it has provided quality service to commercial enterprises and government agencies. Global Staffing has provided gainful employment to thousands of my constituents and other citizens nationwide. I understand that Global Staffing has demonstrated good corporate citizenship, supporting the local community through scholarships for at-risk children, food drives for the homeless, and grants to domestic abuse support agencies.

Westmoreland, Inc. was founded by Dennis Westmoreland a service-disabled veteran of two tours in Vietnam, who has for many years given his time and energy to working with and supporting other veterans at VA hospitals in Colorado.

I congratulate the management and staff of Global Staffing and Westmoreland for this award and wish them continued success in the future.

WHEN, IN HEARTS AS FOUND

HON. ZACH WAMP

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. WAMP. Madam Speaker, this poem was written to honor a great American patriot, Sue Downes of Claiborne County, Tennessee.

WHEN, IN HEARTS AS FOUND

When, In Hearts As Found! Such things as so astounds . . . When all else fails, as when courage comes to crest . . . when heard in ones heart such sounds! Beating . . . beating all in ones chest so now . . . Are but all those heroes, magnificent's who so wear that crown . . .

That crown worn of Hero so now . . . Who must so rebuild their lives, someway . . . somehow . . . Whose great hearts do so astound, as does so one so Susan Downes!

While, marching off to war . . . Leaving behind, all that she so loved and adored . . . But for her family and sweet country tis of thee, as was her burden bore . . . who could but ask for more?

With her two strong legs so lost . . . Is that not what heaven is for? Paying such a great price, such a cost . . . this her albatross . . . As she came home, and her courageously fine heart would not so be lost!

For in this war . . . Unlike, none before . . . women have all given so much more!
