ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). Two minutes remain on this vote.

□ 1917

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GUTIERREZ. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably absent from this Chamber today. I would like the record to show that, had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall votes 207, 208 and 209.

Ms. CLARKE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to state for the record my position on the following votes I missed due to flight delays as a result of air traffic control issues and runway repairs at LaGuardia Airport. I was in New York for a press conference with Mayor Bloomberg addressing the Swine Flu Pandemic.

On Monday, April 27, 2009 I missed votes on H. Res. 329, H.R. 1746 and H. Res. 335. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on the following votes:

H. Res. 329—Recognizing the anniversary of the tragic accident of the steamboat ship SS Sultana (Representative SNYDER—Armed Services).

H. Res. 1746—Pre-Disaster Mitigation Act of 2009 (Representative OBERSTAR—Transportation and Infrastructure).

H. Res. 335—Supporting the goals and ideals of National Volunteer Week (Representative PLATTS—Education and Labor).

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF H. Con. Res. 49

Ms. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my name as a cosponsor of H. Con. Res. 49.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

CORPORATE INJURY, ILLNESS, AND FATALITY REPORTING ACT OF 2009

(Mr. HARE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HARE. Mr. Speaker, tomorrow is the 39th anniversary of the Occupational Safety and Health Act. While this law has resulted in great strides for workplace safety, too many workers are still at risk of injury, illness, or even death in their jobs. In fact, each year, 6,000 workers are killed on the job and thousands more are injured.

On the eve of Workers' Memorial Day to honor all the workers who have been injured or killed at work, I rise to introduce the Corporate Injury, Illness, and Fatality Reporting Act of 2009. This legislation would require America's largest employers to accurately report to the Department of Labor on the numbers and rates of work-related deaths, injuries, and illnesses at all of their work sites. They must also supply compliance data regarding OSHA inspections and citations that have occurred at any and all of their work sites.

OSHA is not currently required to conduct nationwide investigations into large companies with multiple establishments. Therefore, serial offenders can hide in the weeds and avoid making their workplace as safe as possible. This legislation would bring these companies into the light of day and provide OSHA invaluable data so they can protect workers in danger of illness, accidents, or worse.

I look forward to working with my colleagues to advance this legislation, ensuring safer and healthier working conditions to workers across the country.

REMEMBERING SARVELIO DEL VALLE

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, our south Florida community has suffered a deep loss with the passing of Sarvelio del Valle, a well-known sports commentator for Radio Mambi, part of the Univision family.

Sarvelio was respected not only for his encyclopedic knowledge of sports, but also for his great love of his family, especially his pride for his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was an outstanding sports commentator who was respected by all.

Every day on Radio Mambi, Sarvelio would get the latest sports news to our community, and his segments were indeed the most listened to of that station. Just a few years ago, in fact, he was actually voted as the "Most Popular Radio Personality in Sports."

He started his broadcast career in sports in Puerto Rico in 1962, moved to Miami in 1970, and was well-known for his Spanish language broadcast of the Miami Heat basketball games and the University of Miami football games. He also narrated boxing matches around the world, but it was in the Florida Marlins' games where he excelled.

My deepest sympathy goes to his family, his great and loving friend, Armando Perez-Roura of Radio Mambi, and his countless fans throughout the south Florida community.

Te vamos a extranar, Sarvelio—we will miss you, Sarvelio.

SINGLE-PAYER PLAN FOR THE STATES

(Mr. KUCINICH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KUCINICH. As the effort to reform health care gathers momentum, States have taken it upon themselves to enact their own reforms out of desperation to increase quality, provide care for the uninsured and underinsured, and rein in uncontrolled cost increases. Many have turned to the model that has proven to meet those goals inside and outside the U.S., the single-payer health care model.

In the last 3 years, the California State legislature has twice passed a single-payer bill. Pennsylvania, Colorado, Illinois, Montana, New York, Washington, Ohio, and Minnesota are also home to single-payer bills with strong grassroots movements. Unfortunately, if the bills were to pass, Federal barriers would need to be overcome. ERISA could preempt the States from enacting their own health care reform. Waivers would need to be granted that would allow the States to redirect the Federal funds they currently receive for health care. Federal financial assistance, if necessary, could also be imperative.

Enabling the States to meet their own needs would be a strong complement to a national health care reform plan. Congress should call for language that allows the States to implement a single-payer plan if they so choose.

CONGRATULATING RENEE MONTGOMERY AND UCONN WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM

(Mrs. CAPITO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. CAPITO. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor the University of Connecticut women's basketball team for their incredible accomplishments on the court.

Led by head coach Geno Auriemma, the Huskies went undefeated to win their sixth national title by defeating the University of Louisville 76-54 in the NCAA Division I championship.

But today I want to commend one of West Virginia's most accomplished student athletes, a member of that team; a young woman I have seen play since she was a young girl, and someone that my daughters competed against since they were little girls. I would like to commend my congratulations to senior Renee Montgomery of Saint Albans, West Virginia.

During her high school career, she helped Capital High School win a State championship, and subsequently led South Charleston High School to three appearances in the State championship game. Her performance with the Huskies as a point guard was an integral part of the team's success this season. She was a 4-year starter for the Huskies, scoring an impressive 1,500 career points and 500 assists, one of only three players ever to do so. She is the only player in school history to rank in the top 10 in points, assists, steals, and 3-pointers.

Renee is from a wonderful West Virginia family. She is the best of West Virginia, and we are very proud of her and the Huskies.
