

RECOGNIZING THE SERVICE OF SPECIALIST DAVID OLIVER

HON. TOM McCLINTOCK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 4, 2010

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Madam Speaker, today I honor the service of one of our nation's brave soldiers, Specialist David Oliver. Spc. Oliver was severely injured in Afghanistan during operation Enduring Freedom and is currently undergoing a lengthy rehabilitation at Walter Reed Medical Center here in D.C.

A graduate of Casa Roble High School, Specialist Oliver enlisted in the Army immediately upon graduation eager to serve his country and continue his family's tradition of service—David's father was a firefighter in Sacramento County, his brother serves in the Marines and his sister in the Air Force. After enlisting, Specialist Oliver was deployed to Iraq and upon completion of his assignment there he volunteered to serve in Afghanistan where he suffered his wounds.

I am extremely humbled to know there are men and women of his caliber who are so willing to risk their lives in order to protect our great country. I consider it a great honor and privilege to represent Specialist David Oliver and I urge my colleagues to join me in recognizing his great service and sacrifice.

CYBERSECURITY ENHANCEMENT
ACT OF 2009

SPEECH OF

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 3, 2010

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 4061) to advance cybersecurity research, development, and technical standards, and for other purposes:

Ms. ESHOO. Madam Chair, I rise today in support of H.R. 4061, the Cybersecurity Enhancement Act of 2009. First, my thanks to Chairman GORDON and Representative LIPINSKI for their work on this bill. The Cybersecurity Enhancement Act coordinates federal research and development in cybersecurity, focuses on developing a skilled cybersecurity workforce, and prominently positions the U.S. in the development of international cybersecurity technical standards. These areas should be priorities for all agencies in the federal government.

While these investments and initiatives will move us toward the goal of protecting our nation's information infrastructure and assets, there is more we must do to protect these essential resources.

There's been an alarming increase in the number of cyberattacks launched on the U.S. information technology industry, their employees, customers, and the U.S. citizens that leverage these innovative tools. In addition, many countries are beginning to implement specific regulations that discriminate against the U.S. by requiring our innovators to reveal the blueprints of their success as a condition of market entry. This is essentially the "hijacking" of intellectual property and is widespread around the world.

As a result, the attacks on these uniquely American assets not only jeopardize U.S. economic security, but our national security is also at risk. This is a threat to the continued economic growth and job creation by the information technology industry, much of which comes from my district. It also undermines the integrity of the networks across the globe which the U.S. depends on to secure sensitive information.

The cybersecurity initiatives in this legislation are a worthwhile effort which I support. It also is imperative that the growth engine of our innovation economy—our information technology that is delivered seamlessly and securely around the globe—is defended and protected by the U.S. government when a foreign entity attempts to compromise it.

Congress must move aggressively to ensure that any attempt at cyberattacks or "high-tech robbery" on any U.S. enterprise here and abroad is dealt with strongly and swiftly by the United States Government.

Madam Speaker, I urge the adoption of the bill.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. LYNN C. WOOLSEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 4, 2010

Ms. WOOLSEY. Madam Speaker, on February 3, 2010, I was unavoidably detained and was unable to record my vote for rollcall No. 34. Had I been present, I would have voted:

Rollcall No. 34: Yes—Hastings of Florida Amendment.

TRIBUTE TO RECREATIONAL
EQUIPMENT, INC. (REI)

HON. DAVID G. REICHERT

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 4, 2010

Mr. REICHERT. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize a company headquartered in the Eighth Congressional District that has been recognized this month by Fortune magazine as one of the "100 Best Companies to Work For." Recreational Equipment, Inc., REI, was ranked 14th on Fortune's 2010 list. With this year's acknowledgment, REI is now one of only five companies nationwide to appear on Fortune's list every year since it was first unveiled in 1998.

Headquartered in Kent, Washington, REI employs 9,137 people across the country and takes care of them through a variety of health care options, store discounts, paid sabbaticals for veteran employees, and generous retirement plan contributions. REI produces state-of-the-art outdoor equipment and clothing for people to enjoy everything our country's landscape has to offer. Additionally, the company promotes a culture of sustainability and is committed to protecting our precious natural resources and lush, open spaces.

In selecting companies for this list, Fortune collects random employee interviews and written surveys to determine an organization's willingness and ability to care for its employees. REI's consistent recognition is a testament not only to its sound business model but also its dedication to providing for the well-being of its people. Businesses like REI are the heart and soul of the American economy. We should do everything possible to promote the innovation and sound practices of our job creators, and I believe Fortune's "100 Best" list is a valuable tool to do that. I offer my heartfelt congratulations and thanks to President and CEO Sally Jewell and her many employees for setting the gold standard that other companies would be wise to follow.

HONORING ERIC DAVID BROOKS,
INTEL SCIENCE TALENT SEARCH FINALIST

HON. CAROLYN MCCARTHY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 4, 2010

Mrs. MCCARTHY of New York. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize my constituent Eric David Brooks and congratulate him as a finalist in the Intel Science Talent Search 2010. The Intel Science Talent Search is America's most prestigious science competition for high school seniors. Eric is one of only 40 Finalists nationwide.

Eric's project, "Transition from Indolent to Metastatic Prostate Cancer Characterized through the Health Disparity between African American and Caucasian American Men," studied the racial and genetic factors affecting the metastatic potential of prostate cancer.

As a student at George W. Hewlett High School, Eric participates in numerous activities and clubs. He is a member of the Math Olympiads and Mock Trial Team. Eric is also the news editor of the school newspaper. In addition, he is a cellist with the Long Island Youth Orchestra and part of the chamber and pit orchestras at George W. Hewlett High School. As a senior member of the Education and Labor Committee, I am truly impressed by Eric's accomplishments.

Madam Speaker, it is with pride and admiration I offer my congratulations to Eric David Brooks and commend his dedication to education and science.

IN MEMORY OF MS. PAULA SMITH

HON. WM. LACY CLAY

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 4, 2010

Mr. CLAY. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Ms. Paula Smith, a trail-blazing business woman and beloved member of the St. Louis community, who recently passed, on January 28, 2010, at 76. Ms. Smith devoted over 30 years of her life to public service and worked tirelessly to better the lives of those around her.

At the age of 16, Ms. Smith dropped out of high school, but she later earned a high school equivalency diploma and then went on to receive a degree in economics from Washington University. Ms. Smith's education did not end here; she earned a master's in business administration from St. Louis University and did graduate work at Harvard. Ms. Smith's dedication to her education was a testament
