ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining in this vote.

□ 1843

Mr. LAMBORN changed his vote from “aye” to “no.”

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. KILPATRICK of Michigan. Madam Speaker, I was unable to attend to several votes today. Had I been present, I would have voted “aye” on final passage of H. Res. 1347, “aye” on final passage of H. Res. 1385; “aye” on final passage of H. Res. 1316, and “aye” on final passage of H. Res. 1169.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. CONYERS. Madam Speaker, on May 26, 2010, I was called away on personal business. I regret that I was not present to vote for H. Res. 1347, H. Res. 1385, H. Res. 1316 and H. Res. 1169. Had I been present, I would have cast a “yea” on all of these votes.

PERMISSION TO FILE SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT ON H.R. 5136, NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2011

Mr. MARSHALL. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Armed Services be authorized to file a supplemental report on the bill, H.R. 5136.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Georgia?

There was no objection.

ELECTING A MEMBER TO CERTAIN STANDING COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. ZOE LOFGREN of California (during the reading). Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be considered as read and printed in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

AMERICANS DESERVE ACCESS TO PUBLIC LANDS

(Mr. HASTINGS of Washington asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HASTINGS of Washington. Madam Speaker, millions of acres across our Nation are owned by the Federal Government, including national parks, forests, monuments, wilderness areas, and other lands. These lands belong to the American people and should be accessible to the public to enjoy.

The Hanford Reach National Monument located in my hometown includes Rattlesnake Mountain. I've been to the summit of Rattlesnake Mountain, and it provides unparalleled views of the Monument, Hanford, and the Columbia River, and everybody should have an opportunity to appreciate that.

I'm introducing legislation that would ensure public access to the summit of Rattlesnake Mountain. My bill simply is about making sure that land owned by the American people is accessible to the entire Tri-Cities community—not something to be admired from afar and from behind a fence. Recognizing that people are allowed to go to the top of Mount Rainier, there is no reason why safe and regular access to the summit of Rattlesnake Mountain for the general public cannot and should not be provided.

ON THE PASSING OF JUDGE EDWARD DAVIS

(Mr. HASTINGS of Florida asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, yesterday a giant in South Florida passed away. He was a dear friend of mine, Judge Edward Davis, and a dear friend of all in America that are in the constant quest for justice. I have not had an opportunity to speak with his wife Patricia, but I did mention briefly last night that I offer she and the family my most sincere condolences.

I intend at the appropriate time in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD to commemorate Ed—and we call him Ned—by referring to the awesome career that he had and the significant number of undertakings that he put forward either as a lawyer or as a judge or as a citizen in Miami, Dade County, and throughout Florida and this Nation on behalf of the Southern District of Florida.

He will be sorely missed. He was an extremely tall and giant of a man with as big a heart as was the fact that he was tall. I will sorely miss him. The Southern District of Florida and all of their judges; Judge James Lawrence King and he were good friends. Ned and I went on the bench together at the same time, and it hurts me and it hurts our community that he is gone.

That said, Mr. Speaker, I will commemorate his memory more appropriately as time progresses.

NATIONAL MEDIA IGNORE PRESIDENT'S LOWEST-EVER APPROVAL RATING

(Mr. SMITH of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SMITH of Texas. Mr. Speaker, President Obama's approval rating hit a new low this week according to a Rasmussen public opinion poll. Just 42 percent of Americans approve of the President's job performance. By a margin of almost 2-1, more Americans strongly disapprove of the President rather than strongly approve and fewer than half of those in the President's own party strongly approve of his job performance.

Not surprisingly, the national media have mostly ignored these results. The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Los Angeles Times, and USA Today—among many others—failed to mention the Rasmussen poll. In contrast, during former President George W. Bush's administration, the national media frequently reported polls showing any falling approval rating.

The national media should report the facts, not practice double standards.

RENEWABLE ENERGY AND ENERGY EFFICIENCY EXPO AND FORUM

(Mr. TONKO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TONKO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to discuss the 13th annual Congressional Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Expo and Forum that is slated to take place tomorrow. The topic of this expo is especially timely. Last year, China invested $34.6 billion in clean energy while the United States invested $18.6 billion, a distant second. We have an energy problem, and we need to address it.

At this forum, there are over 50 businesses, clean energy trade associations, government agencies, and energy policy research organizations that will be
