

forced to wait it out. "For 17 days, we didn't move, just rocked. Everyone was sick."

Upon leaving military service, he made short work about marrying Wilma Vaughn.

"I came home in January 1946. We were married in July 1946."

On the day that would end up being his wedding day, Boggs asked to borrow his father's Chevy. He didn't have a car at the time. He drove over to Wilma's house and picked her up.

"She didn't know we was going to get married until I picked her up," Boggs said. "She was the best wife there ever was. A real Christian woman."

The couple's first car was a '36 Ford they bought in 1947. They'd been married for six months and needed a car because Wilma was teaching school.

Boggs said it seems odd by today's standard that you'd have to buy a nearly decade-old car, but that's the way it was back then.

"You couldn't get a car back then, new or used. We were lucky to get that one," he said.

While at Sublimity Elementary, Wilma retired from teaching in 1981, the same year Boggs retired from the post office, in order to travel. Before Wilma's passing earlier this year, the two had seen most of the western United States together.

Boggs enjoys woodworking, having built his home in the Sublimity area. He keeps his family close, as a majority live just a stone's throw away, including his daughter, Libby Smallwood.

He has three grandchildren and two great-granddaughters.

TRIBUTE TO "CHIP" JAENICHEN

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, I rise today in honor of Captain Paul "Chip" Jaenichen, United States Navy, who is retiring this month after three decades of dedicated service to our great Nation. Captain Jaenichen has spent the last 2 years of his career serving the U.S. Congress as the Navy's Deputy Chief of Legislative Affairs. In this role, Captain Jaenichen maintained oversight of the Navy team that provides Members and committees of Congress with information concerning the programs of the Department of the Navy.

Captain Jaenichen's Kentucky roots run deep. He spent his formative years in Brandenburg, graduating from Meade County High School in 1978. During his senior year he was selected as one of 50 football players from across the Commonwealth to play in the 1978 East-West All-star game. Chip's wife Paula was born in Morganfield, grew up in Louisville and later attended Meade County High School with him. After her graduation from Western Kentucky University, Paula and Chip were married in Brandenburg. The couple then moved to Louisville, where they lived until he began the Nuclear Training pipeline. Their daughter Rachael attended Murray State University and is now an English teacher at Reidland High School in Paducah. Chip and Paula's son Nathan currently serves as a Marine Corps pilot.

Chip was able to pay homage to his Kentucky heritage in his career as the Executive Officer of the USS Kentucky, an Ohio Class ballistic missile submarine. During this tour he started a Namesake State school partnership with Raceland Elementary School near Ashland. Through this program, which continues to thrive, he coordinated several visits for the crew of the Kentucky to work on humanitarian projects in the Commonwealth. Chip's efforts led to his nomination and selection to the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels in 1996, an organization with which he remains active.

Captain Jaenichen's naval career began in 1978 with an appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy from Representative William Natcher. Upon graduation, he was commissioned as a submarine officer and spent the majority of his career on sea duty. He honorably served on four different submarines before assuming the role of Executive Officer aboard the USS Kentucky. After three strategic deterrent patrols with the Kentucky, Captain Jaenichen assumed command of the USS Albany. Captain Jaenichen served the final 2 years of his career with the Navy's Legislative Affairs office here in Washington.

I thank Captain Jaenichen for his 30 years of loyal service to this Nation. He has made a lasting and significant contribution to the United States Navy and our Nation. I wish him and his family all the best as they begin this new chapter in their lives.

TRIBUTES TO SENATOR BARBARA MIKULSKI

Mr. LIEBERMAN. Madam President, I rise today to join my colleagues in congratulating Senator BARBARA MIKULSKI from Maryland on becoming the longest-serving woman in the history of Congress. Senator MIKULSKI has thus reinforced her distinctive mark on this institution and her unmistakable place in our Nation's history.

Those who have worked beside Senator MIKULSKI know her to be a dynamic force of nature. While she is not the tallest senator, she reaches the greatest heights with her strong principles, indomitable spirit, and steely resolve.

From the neighborhoods of east Baltimore to the Halls of Congress, she has spent her career in the political trenches fighting for others—for women, for working Americans, and for her beloved Maryland. Senator MIKULSKI has been a practical leader for better women's health care. She fought to have women included in clinical trials and medical research at the National Institutes of Health and helped establish federal standards for mammograms.

Her impact is not only felt in the lives of those she serves, but also in her relationships with those she serves with. At this time in our politics when the partisanship pulls us apart, when tribal instincts have coarsened our discourse and weakened our bonds, Senator MIKULSKI is a unifying force of comity in the Senate. She brings a sense of civility and a sense of humor to this institution at a time when both are sorely needed.

Women senators fondly know Senator MIKULSKI as their Dean. She hosts regular bipartisan dinners for them and is a trusted mentor. She understands that while many of us come to Congress with competing goals, at the end of the day, we are colleagues. We have to work together. Unless we can affirm our bonds as colleagues and fellow humans, the work we are tasked with by the American people will not get done, and the public interest will suffer as a result.

Senator MIKULSKI's remarkable career continues to inspire women across our country on the nobility of public service and the ability for one person to bring about positive change in the lives of others. It is a pleasure to serve beside her, and I wish her my very best for many more productive years here in the Senate.

Mr. BENNET. Madam President, today I want to honor Senator BARBARA MIKULSKI, who has represented the people of Maryland for more than 35 years, and who earlier this week became the longest-serving female Member of Congress. Senator MIKULSKI is a fighter, a fearless leader and a role model for women and young girls everywhere, including my three daughters, Caroline, Halina and Anne.

During the course of her distinguished career, Senator MIKULSKI has been an incredibly effective advocate, and in particular has taken a leadership role in mentoring other women as they follow in her footsteps to the halls of Congress. She has represented Maryland exceptionally well—on issues ranging from civil rights and the environment, to issues affecting working families and our criminal justice system.

Tracking Senator MIKULSKI's career is also a good way to follow the progress of women in our country. When first elected to Congress for Maryland's 3rd district in 1976, Senator MIKULSKI was one of 21 women serving in Congress. Today there are 92 women serving, thanks in large part to the trailblazing efforts of Senator MIKULSKI.

Through her work in an array of roles, from the women's amendment in the Affordable Care Act to her leadership on the Senate Subcommittee on Children and Families, Senator MIKULSKI is known as a coalition builder. This role has led her to cultivate personal and professional partnerships among the members of the Senate. Likely some of the country's most important work is done during the bipartisan dinners she frequently hosts for her female Senate colleagues.

I am proud that my first vote as a Senator in January 2009 was in favor of one of Senator MIKULSKI's bills, the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act, which guarantees women equal pay for equal work. And I have thoroughly enjoyed
