PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

God, You are our God. Eagerly we seek You, longing to see Your strength and glory. Today, assure the Members of this body of Your love and give them unshakeable confidence in Your providential leading. Lord, teach them what they should think and do, as You illuminate their path so that they will not stumble. As You have led this Nation through troubled times in the past, be now to us our source of life and light and wisdom. Inspire us all so that we may know and do Your will.

We pray in Your sovereign Name. Amen.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will report the bill by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

Motion to proceed to Calendar No. 250, S. 1940, a bill to amend the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, to restore the financial solvency of the flood insurance fund, and for other purposes.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, following my remarks and those of Senator MCCONNELL, if any, the next hour will be divided and controlled between the two leaders. It will be equally divided.

The majority will control the first half and the Republicans will control the final half.

We are still working on trying to finish an agreement to the farm bill so we can move forward. It is disappointing we don't already have something, but hope is still here, and I hope we can get that done. It is a very important piece of legislation, but a few Senators are holding this up and that is too bad. I have agreed we can have some amendments. I had a nice colloquy on the floor yesterday with Senator COBURN, who is concerned about this bill and legislation generally. He indicated that he thought it was a good idea to have a number of amendments and start voting on them, so I hope we can get there. We can't do all 250 amendments that are out there, but we can do a lot of them, so let's see where we are. I hope we can get it done.

We are on the flood insurance bill. We have to get to that. The flood insurance expires at the end of this month.

We will continue to work on an agreement with the farm bill.

I also hope to reconsider the failed cloture vote on the nomination of Mari Carmen Aponte, to be an ambassador to the Republic of El Salvador.

Votes are possible throughout today's session. Senators will be notified when they are scheduled.

Would the Chair announce the business of the day.

RESERVATION OF LEADER TIME
