ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that at a time to be determined by me in consultation with the Republican leader, the Senate proceed to executive session to consider nominations Nos. 47 and 49; that there be 30 minutes for debate equally divided in the usual form; that following the use or yielding back of that time, the Senate proceed to vote with no intervening action or debate on the nominations in the order listed, the motions to reconsider be considered made and laid upon the table, with no intervening action or debate; that no further motions be in order; that any related statements be printed in the RECORD; that President Obama be immediately notified of the Senate's action and the Senate then resume legislative session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

APPOINTMENT

THE PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair, on behalf of the Republican leader, pursuant to Public Law 112-240, appoints the following individual as a member of the Commission on Long-Term Care:

Christopher S. Jacobs of Washington, DC, vice Bruce D. Greenstein.

THANKING SENATE PAGES

Mr. REID. Madam President, tomorrow there will be another class of pages who will graduate after serving the Senate so well. We expect a lot of our pages, who often work as hard as Senators and staff. Their contributions to make the Senate run smoothly day in and day out are greatly appreciated. I commend them for their hard work, thank them for their efforts, and wish them the best of luck in their next endeavor.

Speaking from a personal perspective, my two oldest grandchildren served as pages. It really changed their lives. Even though their grandfather was heavily involved in politics—and that was all my adult life—they really were not in tune with what was going on or I guess they really didn't care that much. But after having served here as pages, they became avid readers of the press, listened to the news, and became interested in what goes on here.

These jobs as pages are really life-changing. There are lots of examples of that. Senator Chris Dodd, who recently retired, was a longtime Member of Congress and Senator from Connecticut. His serving as a page really paved the way for him to be a Peace Corps volunteer, a Member of Congress, and a Member of the Senate. Each of these young men and women has a golden opportunity.

I appreciate very much how hard they have worked. These young men and women have gone to school, and it has been hard. It is not easy to complete the semester of school that they do here—it is very hard. People who run that school cut them no slack.

Whether it is English or math, they work them very hard. They go through a drill, living in the dorm. It is not easy. They are strictly supervised.

I am proud of every one of them. I wish I had more time to spend with them individually because it is really important for this institution that the page program continue.

ORDERS FOR FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 2013

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until 9:30 a.m. tomorrow morning, June 7, 2013; that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, and the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day; that following any leader remarks, the Senate resume the motion to proceed to S. 744, the comprehensive immigration reform bill, under the previous order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. REID. Mr. President, the next rollcall vote will be Monday at 5:30 p.m.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. REID. If there is no further business to come before the body, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate adjourn under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 12:42 p.m., adjourned until Friday, June 7, 2013, at 9:30 a.m.
