

was inspired to serve our Nation following the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001. He was killed the day after his 20th birthday in May of 2005 while fighting in Iraq. He was a member of the Columbus-based Lima Company. Twenty-three total servicemembers from Lima Company died in Iraq. Marine Lance Corporal Davids died during a 96-hour period, Mr. Speaker, in which six members died and 15 were wounded.

Marine Lance Corporal Davids was always willing to lend a hand. His family and friends say he was full of energy, especially when it came to driving or working on cars. He was also a standout rower in high school and well-loved by his community. Crowds lined the street following his memorial service. He is survived by his parents, Jody and Michael, and brother, Steven, in Dublin, Ohio.

Captain Nicholas Rozanski attended Dublin High School and was a lifelong resident of Dublin, which he called "God's country."

He proudly served on multiple deployments to Kosovo and Iraq as a member of the Ohio National Guard before he was killed on April 4, 2012, while fighting in Afghanistan. He was described as a model leader who genuinely cared about the men under his command.

Captain Rozanski also was a very proud graduate of Ohio State University, and made a difference in his community by coaching youth soccer for nearly 15 years. He was an accomplished runner, having completed three marathons, and was described by his loved ones as mischievous and witty, with a sparkle in his eye, who loved nothing more than doting on his young daughters. He is survived by his wife, Jennifer; daughters, Emma Kathryn and Anna Elizabeth; his father, Jan Rozanski, and mother, Pamela Mitchell; along with many other family and friends in Dublin, Ohio.

These two heroes, Mr. Speaker, put their country before themselves, and made the ultimate sacrifice. Today, we honor their sacrifice, and that of their families. By naming this postal facility in Dublin, Ohio, after them, their bravery and honor will never be forgotten.

Mr. Speaker, I encourage my colleagues to support the bill.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I am pleased to join my colleagues from Ohio and Michigan in the consideration of H.R. 4919, a bill to designate the facility of the United States Postal Service located at 715 Shawan Falls Drive, in Dublin, Ohio, as the Lance Corporal Wesley G. Davids and Captain Nicholas J. Rozanski Memorial Post Office.

As my friend from Ohio has noted, Lance Corporal Wesley G. Davids grew up in Dublin, Ohio, and graduated from Dublin Scioto High School in 2003. After the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks, Mr. Davids was inspired to join the Marine Corps. He was deployed to Iraq with the 4th Marine Division, Marine Forces Reserve of Columbus, Ohio. On May 11, 2005, just one day after his 20th birthday, Lance Corporal Davids was tragically killed while conducting combat operations against enemy forces in Iraq.

Also a native of Dublin, Ohio, Captain Nicholas Rozanski graduated from Dublin High School in 1994 and Ohio State University in 1999. Nicholas came from a family that honors military service and signed up for the National Guard in 2003. After deployments to Kosovo in 2004 and Iraq in 2007, Captain Rozanski was deployed to Afghanistan as a member of the 37th Infantry Brigade Combat Team in 2012. On April 4, 2012, Captain Rozanski was killed by a Taliban suicide bomber in northern Afghanistan. He is survived by his loving wife and two daughters.

Mr. Speaker, we should pass this bill to honor these two fallen heroes, these sons of Ohio, who have made the ultimate sacrifice on behalf of our country.

I urge the passage of H.R. 4919, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. BENTIVOLIO. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support passage of this bill, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. BENTIVOLIO) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 4919.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

TITLE AMENDMENT TO H.R. 594, PAUL D. WELLSTONE MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY COMMUNITY ASSISTANCE, RESEARCH AND EDUCATION AMENDMENTS OF 2014

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the title of H.R. 594 is amended to read as follows: "A bill to amend the Public Health Service Act relating to Federal research on muscular dystrophy, and for other purposes."

There was no objection.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess until approximately 6:30 p.m. today.

Accordingly (at 6 o'clock and 19 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. BYRNE) at 6 o'clock and 30 minutes p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, proceedings will resume on motions to suspend the rules previously postponed.

Votes will be taken in the following order:

- H.R. 935, by the yeas and nays;
- H.R. 3202, by the yeas and nays;
- H.R. 3107, de novo.

The first electronic vote will be conducted as a 15-minute vote. Remaining electronic votes will be conducted as 5-minute votes.

REDUCING REGULATORY BURDENS ACT OF 2013

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 935) to amend the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act and the Federal Water Pollution Control Act to clarify Congressional intent regarding the regulation of the use of pesticides in or near navigable waters, and for other purposes, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. GIBBS) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 253, nays 148, not voting 31, as follows:
