So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Mr. Speaker, last week, President Obama vetoed the National Defense Authorization Act, which sets funding levels for our military operations.

The bipartisan NDAA contains a number of positive components. The bill funds our troops' pay increases, health care and retirement benefits. It funds the ongoing effort to defeat ISIS and our effort to Afghanistan. This measure blocks the President's plan to close Guantanamo Bay, which would move the terrorists here to U.S. prisons if it was shut down. And it continues funding for the A-10, a very important close air support aircraft so effective that it is leading the fight against ISIS.

This isn't one of the controversial issues we debate here. It is about the basic responsibility of funding our military while our Armed Forces are engaged overseas.

With ISIS, Syria, Iran, South China Sea, Ukraine, Afghanistan, and also our allies like Israel watching and wondering what we are doing here, we need to do a lot better than that. We need to override the President's veto.

REAUTHORIZATION OF THE HIGHWAY TRUST FUND

(Mr. AGUILAR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. AGUILAR. Mr. Speaker, today, Congress was faced with a 22-day extension for the reauthorization of the highway trust fund. We have been in this situation before, and every time Republican leadership has chosen to kick the can down the road.

Mr. Speaker, it has to end here. This needs to be the last time. If Congress is going to take 22 days, then we need to use the time to come together and focus on a long-term solution, one that is measured in years, not months.

Our roads, rails, and bridges are the foundation of our economy. They transport our goods, get working moms and dads to and from work, and they connect our towns and cities to States and to the global economy.

We cannot afford to gamble with our transportation and infrastructure, which Inland Empire families in my area and millions throughout the country rely on every day.

If we are able to do this extension, then let's stop governing by crisis.

Short-term Band-Aid solutions prevent cities and towns from being able to plan and accommodate for future projects.

Today, I ask my colleagues to come together and take these 22 days to put through a responsible, long-term solution so Inland Empire families and throughout this Nation have safe and sustainable infrastructure to support their growing homes and businesses.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, as a former judge and prosecutor, I saw the impact of domestic violence firsthand.

As co-founders of the Victims' Rights Caucus, with my friend JIM COSTA from California, we believe that it is important to recognize October as Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

My grandmother used to always say, "You never hurt someone you claim you love." Yet, in 2014 alone, 132 women were killed in domestic violence-related incidents in Texas.

After a history of spousal abuse, 27-year-old Candace Williams Deckard of Houston, Texas, was murdered by her husband on July 17, 2014. She had three children. Her toddler was in the room when she was murdered. Another one of her children, a 7-year-old, ran down the street for help. All of these children will grow up without their mother.

Domestic violence, Mr. Speaker, is not a family issue; it is a national health issue, and it is a criminal justice issue. Domestic violence is a scourge on our national culture. We must not tolerate those who would destroy a family by abuse and murder. We must protect victims.

After all, Mr. Speaker, you never hurt someone you claim you love.

And that is just the way it is.

RETAIL INVESTOR PROTECTION ACT

(Mr. CURBELO of Florida asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CURBELO of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 1090, the Retail Investor Protection Act, which just passed the House.

This bill would delay the Labor Department's regulation defining when an individual would be considered a fiduciary under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, or ERISA.

As a member of the House Education and the Workforce Committee, I have expressed serious concerns that the proposal to expand the definition of "fiduciary" will limit investor choice, prohibit access to investor guidance, and raise the costs of savings for retirement.

In July, I signed a comment letter, led by Chairman KLINE and Chairman
